I hereby state that I am the outright owner of the above listed premises and do hereby request the water be billed to me in my name. I also hereby deposit the sum of $125.00 to be retained by the Village until water service is discontinued; the final bill is computed by the water department, and / or until returned in accordance with the provisions of the Village Code.

I specifically agree to the following condition:

- If the premises are to be vacated, property closed for any length of time, or if a change in ownership or tenancy occurs, an application shall be made to the water department to shut off the water supply, read the meter, and render a final bill. In the event that such notice is not given, the occupants and / or owner shall remain responsible for the water services and charges for that property until such time as written notice is received by the Village Collector.

This application and acceptance thereof, by the Village of Carbon Cliff, shall constitute a contract and shall be subject to all ordinances in force or may be adopted hereafter by the Village of Carbon Cliff for the Government of the Water Department.
